

General Information on Agriculture Education in the WTCS

Across the WTCS, there are 62 different agriculture programs:

- 22 Associate Degrees
- 38 Technical Diplomas & Certificates
- 2 Apprenticeships

Across the WTCS, 2,471 students enrolled in agriculture programs in 2017-18. This was up 10% from the prior year (2016-17 enrollment in ag programs was 2,248).

Overall, the job placement rate for 2017 graduates of Agriculture programs was 98%, higher than the average program job placement rate of 94%.

NTC has experienced growth of 22% in the number of students enrolling in Ag Continuing Education from 2015-16 to 2017-18 (619 enrolled in CE in 2017-18). NTC has offered the following Continuing Education courses in agriculture:

- Advanced Farm Management (581 enrollments in 2017-18)
- Tractor Safety (15 enrollments in 2017-18)
- Small Animal Emergency Care (20 enrollments in 2017-18)
- Cow Signals (3 enrollments in 2017-18)